

Mount Sinai Health System Designated Meal Rooms

Socially distanced spaces to eat at all major facilities

Mount Sinai Beth Israel

- Dazian: Second floor rotunda, sixth floor PICU
- Linsky: Ninth floor, all patient rooms
- Bernstein: First floor open area; third floor, all patient rooms
- Karpas: Fifth floor, all patient rooms

Mount Sinai Brooklyn

- Main floor: Cafeteria and lounge area

The Mount Sinai Hospital

- Please ask your supervisor/unit manager for the location(s) of your department's break and meal spaces.

Mount Sinai Morningside

- Conference room 410, Pavilion
- Hoteling Workstation Rooms, 1090 Amsterdam Avenue, Suite 6A (Floor 6): Reservations required.

Mount Sinai Queens

- Betty Wharton Lounge
- Pavilion: Sixth floor
- Sliver Building Café—fourth floor (swipe your Mount Sinai ID on the card reader at the Sliver Building entrance)

Mount Sinai-Union Square

- Second floor: conference rooms 2 and 3
- Fourth floor: Lounge

Mount Sinai South Nassau

- The Employee Cafeteria
- The Atrium
- Family medicine residents can access the Family Health Center's Conference Room
- Resident landing spaces (throughout the hospital)
- Each residency has its own resident room

Mount Sinai West

- Unit lounges
- Cafeteria
- Doctors' Dining Room (past the cafeteria cashiers to the left, available to everyone)
- Conference Room B, second floor

New York Eye and Ear Infirmary of Mount Sinai

(all locations in North Building)

- Basement: cafeteria
- First floor: Second Avenue Optical Shop
- Third floor: Room 314

The Blavatnik Family – Chelsea Medical Center at Mount Sinai

- Main conference room
- Radiation oncology conference room
- Staff lounge
- Multi-purpose conference room N03
- O.R. staff lounge