

ANY patient with active respiratory symptoms needs to have a mask placed at first contact.

N95 masks should NOT be used for patients or staff in triage.

Any patient who is screened for requiring isolation:

Nurse should place a surgical mask on the patient, and then on themselves

Nurse should walk ahead of patient when leading them to an isolation room

