

May & June 2026 Newsletter

Honoring Compassion in Action

Konul Azimzade, LCSW, was recognized with the Dr. Susan Blumenfeld Clinical Award for Clinical Excellence in Social Work. In a moving reflection, she shares how social work has shaped her journey, highlighting the deep connection, resilience, and compassion that define her care for patients at The Corinne Goldsmith Dickinson Center for Multiple Sclerosis.

Read More >

Watch Konul on Neurology Instagram >

Advancing MS Care: Highlights from the Consortium of Multiple Sclerosis Centers (CMSC) Annual Meeting

Experts from The Corinne Goldsmith Dickinson Center for Multiple Sclerosis shared new insights at the CMSC 2026, including a shift in understanding MS cognition and strategies to improve quality of life in advanced MS cases. The conversations reinforced a shared commitment to patient-centered care, research, and innovation.

Read More >

Out of Office With Stephen Krieger, MD

In this “Out of Office” series, which highlights the passions that shape our team beyond the workplace, Dr. Krieger shares how creating electronic music reflects the same precision, connection, and creativity he brings to patient care at The Corinne Goldsmith Dickinson Center for Multiple Sclerosis.

Learn More >