

CURRENT STATE

Mount Sinai Tisch Cancer Center

280+

cancer specialists, surgeons, and researchers working side by side to create a transformational cancer care experience

294,000+ visits

$68M+

total cancer-relevant funding

$28M+

total NCI grant funding

450+

active clinical trials and research studies

*2024 data

The Mount Sinai Hospital - Oncology

No. 6 in the nation for Cancer by U.S. News & World Report® for 2025-26

A National Cancer Institute (NCI) Comprehensive Cancer Center

11
Centers of Excellence

in oncology among 20 clinical cancer programs

FUTURE STATE

Mount Sinai Tisch Cancer Hospital

$60M gift

from James S. and Merryl H. Tisch to support this transformational project

2028

projected opening

100+ inpatient beds, 80+ infusion chairs, and 5 linear accelerators, all dedicated to oncology

Additional Services Include:

Clinical

- Blood treatments
- Dedicated pharmacy
- Urgent care

Nonclinical

- Med spa, for relaxing, supportive treatments
- Patient library
- Family waiting area

One central hub that brings together the most advanced diagnostics, treatments, and research for cancer, and offers the full range of medical services at The Mount Sinai Hospital to our patients.