I'd run a marathon
to fight cancer.
Fortunately, I only
have to walk a few
blocks to treat it.
