The Family Advisory Council

What is the Family Advisory Council?
The Family Advisory Council is a group of parents and hospital staff who work as partners to improve patient care and family experiences.

What we do
The mission of the council is to assure the delivery of the highest standard of health care. We work together to:

• Assure communication and collaboration among patients, families, caregivers, and staff;

• Promote patient and family advocacy;

• Participate in developing pediatric programs, services, medical education, facility design and policies.

Who can join the council?
You are eligible to apply for council membership if you are an:
• Adult who received medical care at Kravis Children’s Hospital at Mount Sinai or
• A family member whose children are present or past patients of the Kravis Children’s Hospital at Mount Sinai and

You believe in our goals and want to make the medical center a better place to give and receive care!

How we do it
The Council meets the second Thursday of every month from 5:30-7:30pm September through June.

How to become involved
The Family Advisory Council is looking for people who are interested in creating positive change.
